

Einladung zum Immersionstag

German Means Green

A Saturday immersion workshop for high school and college students and their teachers brought to you by AATG Maryland/Metro Area

- Was? A day of FUN, learning about green technology in full German immersion from international German companies and networking with other German students combining German with STEM fields. Cost = $10 per person
- Wo? Catholic University, Washington, D.C.
- Wann? November 1, 2014, 10h00 – 16h15
- Wer? German students (High School level 3 and up, college level A2 and up) and their teachers
- Wie? As part of the event there is a video commercial contest to earn $400 for your German Club! Students can work alone or form small groups and shoot a one-minute German-language video commercial on their choice of one of the following two topics:

- 1.) Promote “green” activities in your community or school!
 - 2.) Encourage fellow students in a school/community recycling program!
- Submissions and registration are due October 1, 2014.

The films will be evaluated by a jury and screened at the event.
